"Be still and know that I am God"
~Psalm 46:10~

Dear Friends in Christ,

So here I am unpacking from a quick vacation with my family in the U.P., repacking for a week of Confirmation Camp at Stony Lake, writing this newsletter article, and a dozen other things great and small. And here I thought these would be long lazy summer days – NOT!

"Those lazy, hazy days of summer..." a time for all of us to pause, take a breath (or two, or three, or ten), and take our pulse here at Christ Lutheran Church. It's easy to get caught up in the anxieties of life and change. Instead this summer I invite you to begin anew:

- practice Sabbath rest
- begin and end each day in gratitude & prayer
- put Christ at the center of your life at home, at work & on vacation
- let the Creator guide your recreation that it may truly be re-creation

The Worship & Music Committee has planned some new service styles for summer worship: 1st Sunday of each month 'traditional' and more casual worship on the other three Sundays. We invite you to come and gather in the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit with the rhythm of music, the celebration of sacraments, and reflection on the Word.

Here is a prayer to still anxiety and bring harmony:

A Celtic Prayer for Stilling the Heart

Encircle me, O God...

...keep FAITH within, keep doubt without.

Encircle me, O God...

...keep HOPE within, keep despair without.

Encircle me, O God...

May God encircle you this summer in Faith, Hope & Love,

Watch for updates on what is happening.

Lay as if new created in all the freshness of childhood."
