How does Christ Lutheran rate?

We have heard of a man who, in an attempt to find out what other churches were really like, visited 18 different churches on consecutive Sundays.

He always sat near the front of each sanctuary. After worship he would walk slowly to the rear, then return to the front, and back to the rear again using another aisle. He was neatly dressed and smiled pleasantly at other worshipers. He would make it a point to initiate a conversation with at least one other person and would remain for coffee, if served.

He used the following scale to rate his reception:

- 10 - for a smile from a worshiper
- 10 - for getting a greeting from someone sitting nearby
- 100 - for an exchange of names
- 200 - for an invitation to return
- 1000 - for an introduction to another worshiper
- 2000 - for each invitation to meet the minister

On this scale, 11 of the 18 churches earned fewer than 100 points and 5 of these actually received less than 20. His conclusion:

‘The doctrine may be biblical, the singing inspirational, the sermon uplifting, but when visitors find nobody cares if they’re there, they are unlikely to return’
